

<sup>Shayla Warren</sup>
I went to Westchester High School, my first High school. I had some personal things going on at home, so at school in 9th or 10th grade I ditched smoked, hanged out with my friends or was just messing up in school. The summer before I went back for 11th grade I checked myself out because I saw what I was doing & losing credits & I didn't want to go farther because I didn't want to lose another year of credits.

So I found a better school stop smoking & all that stuff a got up on my credits Then my 12th grade year at the new school, The teacher got the school ~~out~~ shut down because he was kicking out all the students & lowering the schools numbers. So I found ~~this~~ <sup>this</sup> ~~the~~ school got some more credits.

Then more personal things happened, I stopped coming here. Now Im back trying to finish.
